Readers' Best Restaurant Casanis

Under public nomination for the first time this year, you chose intimate French bistro Casanis as your favourite restaurant. Run by husband-and-wife team Laurent and Jill Couvreur, dishes such as Provençale fish soup with a pot of potent saffron rouille, and pan-fried rib-eye steak with béarnaise sauce, braised endives and home-made French fries captivated your taste buds.

Ambience comes by way of the Georgian building and its pale sage and cream dining rooms furnished with antiques found in French markets. Casanis works equally well for a romantic tête-à-tête as it does for a place to meet business colleagues, with its superb and reasonably-priced set lunch menu.

In your words: 'They simply serve the best French food in the area.' LW
